

Can you afford to lose everything you own?

STORM
FIRE
FLOOD THEFT

Now your contents can be safe at an affordable price.

TenantCover provides cover for tenants, at a low cost with simple security requirements.

While there are many insurance options for homeowners and landlords, it hasn't always been easy for tenants to get the cover they need at a reasonable cost, without a complicated application process and rigid security requirements. Now you can.

I acknowledge my property manager has advised me that insurance relating to my personal contents and liability is not covered by the landlord's, real estate's or Body Corporate/Owners Corporation insurance (where applicable) and is my responsibility.
